

Lauren Jackson started Kleeneze part time while working full-time as a teacher. Lauren and husband Peter have just won two cars to keep for the growth of there team.

A mini cooper and BMW 3 series also added on was two confrences with Kleeneze to Rome in November 05 and Rio in March 06.

They are both full-time with Kleeneze and are enjoying the income and lifestyle.

Super sellers Pete and Lauren Jackson are well on to the road to success after scooping two prize cars.

The driven couple had a new BMW 3 series and a Mini Cooper delivered by employers Kleeneze this week after their business boomed.

Peter (36), and Lauren (39) manage and train a team of 300 distributors, but still find time to deliver catalogues and take orders from customers in the area around their home in Swallownest.

And they are now reaping the rewards of their years working together after scooping two new cars and two holidays within a few months.

The couple, who have been married for five years have enjoyed a city break to Athens and have a trip to Brazil to look forward to after expanding their business to a new level.

The BMW was their reward for hitting high sales targets, while the Mini Cooper is their prize for being the most improved franchise.

Delighted Lauren of Kestrel Rise, said: "Going to Athens was great and made us even more determined to work hard and expand the business.

"It's also a great incentive for everyone in our team."

"Not many couples spend all their day together but we have learned how to do it over the years and the business is going really well."
